

Who is Allah?

Allah - there is no deity except Him,
the Ever-Living, the Sustainer of [all] existence.
Neither drowsiness overtakes Him nor sleep.
To Him belongs whatever is in the heavens and whatever is on the earth. Who is it that can intercede with Him except by His permission?
He knows what is [presently] before them and what will be after them, and they encompass not a thing of His knowledge except for what He wills. His Kursi extends over the heavens and the earth, and their preservation tires Him not.
And He is the Most High, the Most Great.

Holy Qur'an | Surah Baqarah | Verse 255

Say: “He is Allah the one and only; Allah is the self-sufficient (independent of all, while all are dependent on Him); He begets not, not is He begotten (He has no child, nor is He child of any one); and there is none comparable to Him.” Holy Quran, Surah Al-Ikhlās, .

All praise and thanks belongs to Allah, the Rabb of the worlds. The compassionate, the Merciful. Master of the Day of Judgment. Holy Quran , surah Al-Fatiha, verses 1-3.

Our Love for Allah cannot be proved only by saying I love ALLAH. We must Follow the Quran And Sunnah

as well. Ibn Qayyim Said that there are then things that bring about the love of Allah.

1. Recitation of Quran with reflection and with understanding of its meaning.
2. Seeking closeness to Allah by performing voluntary deeds after having performed obligatory ones, for that leads one to the highest levels of Love.
3. Remembering Allah during every situation – with one’s time, heart and deeds. one’s share of that love is to the degree of one’s share in that remembrance
4. Preferring what He loves to what you love when your desires are strong.
5. Allowing your heart to reflect on his Names and Attributes.
6. Reflecting on His many favors and blessings. Both the apparent ones and hidden ones, for that leads to his love.
7. Having your heart softened as it is worshiping Allah.
8. Bring alone with him in worship when He descends during the last third of the night. And this means to invoke Him, to recite His speech, to stand with all sincerity and with good manners and with good submission, and then to end that with repentance and with seeking His forgiveness.
9. Sitting with those who are truthful in their love of Allah
10. Staying away from all that creates barriers between the heart and Allah.
