

Why Quran?

Why we should read, listen, understand, ponder and reflect on Quran (The greatest gift Allah gave to humanity).

According to Quran itself, Ahadith of Prophet Muhammad (SAW) and Islamic scholars there are 12 reasons why we should read, listen, understand, ponder and reflect on Quran. And this is the best thing a human being can do in his/her life

- 1) We can seek approval of Allah and please Him through this effort.
- 2) Increase our righteous deeds in this world and hereafter.
- 3) Revive our hearts, without Quran our hearts are barren and desolate.
- 4) We can get contentment and peace in our heart.
- 5) Quran is healing and mercy for believers (physical, emotional and spiritual ailments)
- 6) We can get guidance (the only source of guidance to humanity), it is revealed for guidance and increase our faith (Eman).
- 7) It is act of worship and hope for reward.
- 8) It will save from the fire of Hell.
- 9) We will get intercession from Quran on the Day of Judgment (It will be witness for or against us).
- 10) It improves our lives, it is "MUBARAK", it's blessings are abundant..
- 11) We can get worldly and eternal benefits, closer to salvation and entering Jannat ul Firdous.
- 12) Quran is instructions from Allah (For Do's and Don'ts)
- 13) If we want to listen to our Lord (Allah) directly, read Quran.
- 14) Prophet (SAW) said, the best amongst you is the one who learns and teaches Quran.
- 15) Recitation of one letter of Quran is one hasanah, where one hasanah can be multiplied by at least 10 to 700 times by Allah (SWT) by His infinite mercy.
- 16) Quran is the only living miracle until the end of time.
- 17) Quran helps improve our Arabic (the language of Quran).

Also Remember Quran has four rights upon us:

1. Read it
2. Learn it (understand, ponder, reflect on it)
3. Implement in our lives.
4. Spread its message to others.